1. Greek children taken from their homes by the Communists have been located in Stalin (Brasov). There are forty of them, none more than nine years old.
2. Another group of Greek children, between 60 and 67 in number, has been located in Hunedoara. These are between 11 and 16 years of age. They are working in the iron factories. Though physically weak, they are not actually ill-treated unless they resist the regime.
